

Subject Name	Description
Environmental Studies	This subject deals with the understanding of the multidisciplinary nature of environmental studies in a better way. This subject also increases the awareness regarding environment and human health as well as human rights.
Financial Accounting	The aim of teaching this subject to students is to demonstrate the critical-thinking and problem-solving skills. Students will be able to analyze financial data to support business decisions and assess the business strategies.
Business Law	This course will help to understand the fundamental and legal principles behind contractual agreements and also helps to understand the relevance of business law to individuals well as business organizations.
Macro Economics	The objective of this subject is to prepare the students about simple analyses of markets for production inputs, including labor and capital. They can predict the likely results of changes in economic conditions and policies.
Business Communication	This course defines how to use effective communication skills in one's business and the need to modify communication depending on business situation and circumstances
Corporate Accounting	The main objective of this course is to provide conceptual knowledge of corporate accounting along with the techniques of preparing financial statements.
Corporate Laws	This course introduces an edge to provide students with the ability to understand laws that have a bearing on the conduct of business in India.
Macro Economics	The main objective of this course is to make the students understand the basic concepts of the macro economics.