

MAHARISHI MARKANDESHWAR UNIVERSITY, SADOPUR–AMBALA

(Established under Haryana Govt. Act No. 29 of 2010 and approved by the UGC under Section 22 of the UGC Act, 1956)

(NAAC Accredited University with Grade 'B')

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

The Maharishi Markandeshwar University Trust, Ambala (erstwhile reputed Maharishi Markandeshwar Education Trust) was founded in 1993 by a distinguished public figure and renowned promoter of education Shri Tarsem Garg for social, educational and economic upliftment of the society. The Trust and its institutions have been named after Maharishi Markandya, the great-grandson of Bhrigu Rishi and the son of Rishi Markandu, the eternal torchbearer of communal harmony and religious tolerance, who by his power of pious devotion and deep faith in Lord Shiva, acquired the boon of eternal life by defeating the invincible Yamraja. Beginning with the establishment of its first institution, MM Engineering College in 1995 at Ambala which was later shifted to Mullana, the Sponsoring Trust has made a rapid progress by establishing the institutions of high profile Under Graduate & Post Graduate Professional courses in the areas of Medical Sciences, Dental Sciences, Physiotherapy, Pharmacy, Nursing, Engineering & Technology, Business Management, Computer Science, Hotel Management & Catering Technology at Mullana which were conferred with the Deemed to be University status in the name of the Maharishi Markandeshwar University, Mullana-Ambala.

As a part of its expansion programme, the Trust has also established a School of Nursing & Midwifery and three International Schools at Mullana, Sadopur-Ambala and Ramba-Karnal and two other Universities with the same name at Mullana-Ambala and Kumarhatti-Solan (HP). The Trust has the pride privilege of establishing the first self-financing Engineering College, first self-financing Medical College, and the first self-financing Deemed University at Mullana and a self-financing Medical College at Kumarhatti-Solan in Himachal Pradesh.

Ideally located on Delhi-Ambala-Chandigarh National highway in the suburb of Ambala towards Chandigarh, the MM University, Sadopur-Ambala has been established for bringing new life to the educational system and providing facilities of quality professional education to the people of the surrounding region. Created under the provisions of the Haryana Private Universities Act, 2006, and having been legislated under Haryana Govt. Act No. 29 of 2010, the Maharishi Markandeshwar University, Sadopur-Ambala has been operationalized w.e.f. the session 2011-12. Newly introduced courses include B.Sc. (Hons) Agriculture, B.Pharm, M.Sc. (Physics, Mathematics), MA (English), B.Sc. (Design) and Master of Architecture. The University has also plan to introduce more courses like B.Sc. (Nursing), B.A.M.S., GNM w.e.f. the coming session. While the University has already been recognized by the UGC for awarding the Degrees under Section 22 of the UGC Act, 1956, recently the University has also been accredited by the National Assessment & Accreditation Council (NAAC).

The University is striving hard for achieving excellence and the initiative taken in introduction of the research degree programme of Ph.D. in selected disciplines is another step in this direction.
