

Maharishi Markandeshwar University, Sadopur, Ambala,

(Established under Haryana Govt. Act No. 29 of 2010, Approved by the UGC under section 22 of the UGC Act, 1956 and NAAC Accredited Grade B University)

Institutional Distinctiveness

The University has been working towards the overall development of the area.

Under "Unnat Bharat Abhiyan", University has adopted five villages. NSS unit of University has conducted various social awareness programmes in the villages to aware the people about social schemes launched by the Government of India.

University has initiated "Save Environment" campaign through following initiatives and activities:

- Generating solar power and utilizing it within the campus.
- Visiting nearby villages to interact with farmers and providing information on Government policies and other social initiatives.
- Rain water harvesting.
- Promoting organic farming through counselling sessions among farmers.
- Helping farmers to setup vermi compost unit in villages.

KISAN GHOSTI

As Environment friendly initiative, Kisan Ghostis are organised by Department of Agriculture, MM University Sadopur, Farmers and Sarpanch of the 5 adopted villages are invited. Farmers are sensitized to use latest technology developed by the agricultural scientists for increasing the productivity of their crop and dairy animals time to time. Farmers are also apprised different ways to improve their income

Farmers are also requested not to burn the residues of crops (stubbles of wheat) and are advised to incorporate the crop residue in soil for improving its fertility.

500 KW roof top Solar Plant

Vermicompost Unit

Organic Farming

